

Ship passenger arrivals in South Australia from 1836 to 1952

ABOUT THIS DATASET

Lookups for Non-Members - before you ask for a lookup please remember that fields displaying the wording "(members only)" doesn't necessarily mean that it contains information for that field in that database. You can request one of our researchers to research further for you. For this you will need to ask for a research request - click here

Lookups for Members - before you ask for a lookup please remember that if a displayed field is BLANK it means that there is no further information available for that field in that database. You can request one of our researchers to research further for you. For this you will need to ask for a research request - click here

A list of people arriving in SA from 1836 to 1952 derived from various sources including newspapers, formal shipping records, immigration records, and records of deserters from ships. More details in Documentation.

Hodge Index: A list of passengers arriving at Port Adelaide from South Australian coastal and intercolonial ports between 1837-1845. This list was originally compiled by SAGHS Volunteer Mary M. B. Hodge.

60,624 records from GRG 41/34, GRG 56/68/7, GRG 35/1:

Newspaper Index: Persons arriving in South Australia from overseas (including New Zealand) as recorded in the Adelaide Times, South Australian and South Australian Register, 1846-1887.

Book - A Free Passage to Paradise?, by Pat Button. 1992

German Immigration Shipping compiled by Dulcie Love and Shirley Kalisch, © 2004

119 records of Irish female orphans on ship Inconstant.

Current Version: 20181025

Records: 277,959